

New!

Transformative Social and Emotional Learning Framework Resources

Support Personal Growth and Collective Well-being

The Oregon Department of Education's new page on the Oregon Instructional Frameworks website provides resources to help teachers and educational leaders create supportive learning spaces where all individuals can develop social and emotional skills and strengthen communities.

What You'll Find

VIRTUAL LEARNING MODULES

to deepen your understanding of the Transformative SEL Framework and Standards

CONTENT-ALIGNED CURRICULUM MATERIALS

to help embed Transformative SEL practices into everyday instruction

FACILITATION MATERIALS

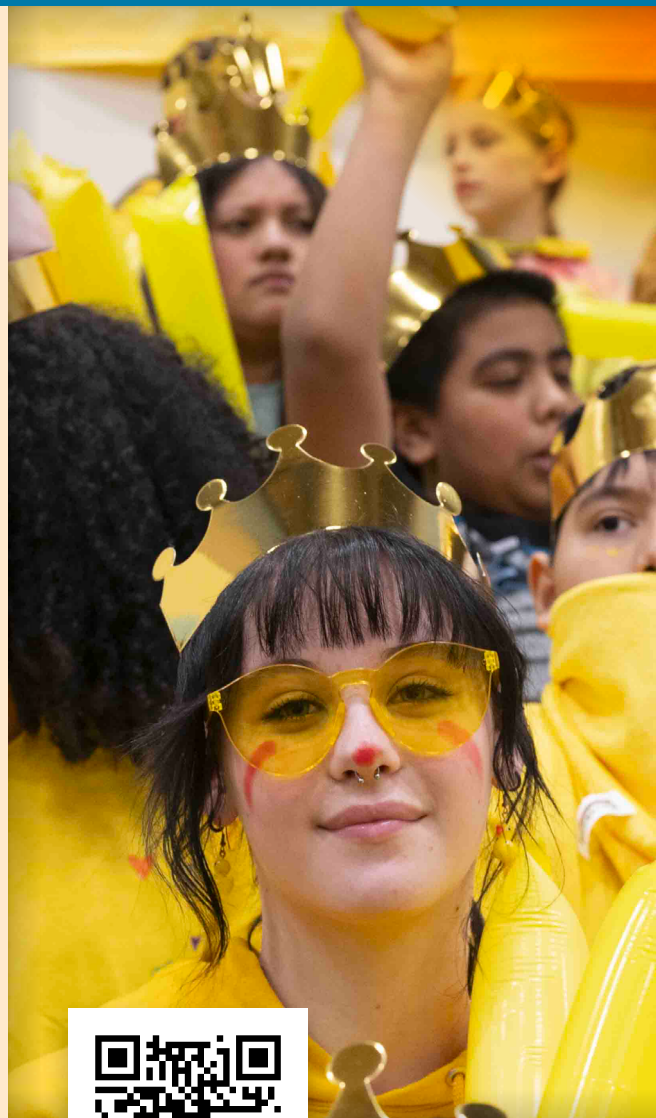

to conduct professional development sessions

GUIDANCE

to integrate Transformative SEL strategies that promote personal and collective agency and well-being throughout the education ecosystem

Who These Resources Are For

- Teachers
- Professional learning facilitators
- School and district leaders
- Family and community members

Access resources and get more information:
oregoninstructionalframeworks.org/TSEL

The Oregon Department of Education, in partnership with WestEd, has developed these professional learning materials using funds from Senate Bill 5701. If you have questions about these materials or the statewide investment, please contact ode.sel@ode.oregon.gov.